

Sudurpaschim province-level consultation on Education issues in the periodic report of the convention on the rights of the child

8 September 2022

Hotel Devotee, Dhangadhi
Kailali

Organized By :

Supported By :

Ministry for Foreign Affairs of Finland

interpedia

39 Male

14 Female

Education Watch Group of Sudurpaschim province and Loo Niva in collaboration with the CRC coalition, the solidarity of 17 national networks active in the field of children and education conducted the " and Sudurpaschim province level consultation on Education issues in the periodic report of the convention on the rights of the child on September 8, 2022. On the same day, Loo Niva organized another program - "Democratic forum for the right to education and Sudurpaschim province level consultation program on Civic Space and Participation". The program concluded that the role of the democratic platform is important for the right to education and that civil society should be involved in the program.

Mr. Milan Raj Dharel, a child rights activist and formal executive director of the National

Objectives:

- To review the commitments made by the government of Nepal in the convention.
- To consult with civil societies to include the viewpoints and conclusions on the issues of the right to education in the alternative report.

Child Right Council, on behalf of the civil organizations, presented a brief presentation on the democratic platform for education rights and citizen participation. Program Manager of Loo Niva and National Coordinator of Education Watch Group Mr. Sant Ram Dangol give a presentation on the Educational Status of Sudurpaschim province. An open discussion was done and collected feedback and suggestion from the participants. Mr. Narendra Dangol, executive director of Loo Niva welcomed all the participants and highlight the objectives of the program. Mr. Gyan Bhakta Maharjan, the secretariat of the Education Watch Group and Monitoring and Evaluation Coordinator of Loo Niva emceed the program.